

Type of Facility:	Health Care Facility
Facility Group Name:	Sun Country Health Authority
Facility Name:	Arcola Health Center
Location:	605 Prairie Avenue, Arcola, Sask
Date of Submission:	16-Dec-19
Primary Contact Name:	John Megebir	Secondary Contact Name:	Marlon Milbrandt
Primary Contact Title:	Maintenance Manager	Secondary Contact Title:	Director - Building Services Rural
Primary Contact Email Address:	John.Megebir@schr.sk.ca	Secondary Contact Email Address:	Marlon.Milbrandt@saskhealthauthority.ca
Primary Contact Telephone:	306-842-8377	Secondary Contact Telephone:	(306) 786-0416
Primary Contact Preferred Method:	Email	Secondary Contact Preferred Method:	Email

1. Type of Asbestos Containing Material [ACM]	2. Location in Facility	3. Characteristics	4. Accessibility	5. Comments
Ceiling Tile	The asbestos-containing Ceiling Tile was identified within the following areas of the facility: Corridor 104.	The Ceiling Tile contains 1-5% Chrysotile asbestos and is considered a friable asbestos material.	Low	A friable product is one that can be crumbled or reduced to powder or smaller fragments by hand pressure.
Drywall Mud Compound	The asbestos-containing Drywall Mud Compound was identified in the following areas of the facility: Basement, Rm 106 Reception and Patient Wing. Compilation samples were taken from various locations. Consider all Drywall Mud Compound to be asbestos-containing until further testing proves otherwise.	The Drywall Mud Compound contains 1-5% Chrysotile asbestos and is considered a non-friable asbestos material. Drywall Mud Compound is located at drywall seams/joints and nail/screw holes throughout the facility.	High	A non-friable product is one that cannot be crumbled or reduced to powder or smaller fragments by hand pressure.
Fire Door Interior Liner	The asbestos-containing Fire Door Interior Liner was identified in the following areas of the facility: Mechanical Room B10.	The Fire Door Interior Liner contains 60% Chrysotile asbestos and is considered a friable asbestos material.	Low	A friable product is one that can be crumbled or reduced to powder or smaller fragments by hand pressure.